

5 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD USE SUITABLE!

01

Earn digital credentials (badges)

Get recognized for the skills you build outside the classroom. Earn digital badges that validate your achievements and showcase specific competencies. These credentials can be shared on platforms like LinkedIn to highlight your accomplishments. Your engagement translates into real, shareable proof that your co-curriculars matter for career readiness.

Showcase your story with future employers

Turn your involvement into a professional story you can share. The app helps you capture experiences, skills, and achievements in one place so you can clearly demonstrate your growth. Instead of just listing activities on a resume, Suitable tracks the numbers for you so you can show impact and outcomes. Make it easy for employers to see what sets you apart!

Keep track of your co-curricular involvement

Keep all your campus experiences organized in one centralized space. From events and workshops to leadership roles and service, you'll have a complete record of your involvement. No more scrambling to remember what you did or when you did it. Your growth is documented as it happens.

Compete with your friends

Stay motivated with friendly competition. Earn points for completing activities and climb the leaderboard alongside your peers. It's a fun way to stay engaged and challenge yourself to get more involved. Engagement becomes rewarding and visible.

04

Submit your own requests

Take ownership of your experience. Easily submit requests for events, activities, or opportunities directly through the app. No extra emails or complicated processes. Your ideas and involvement can move forward faster.
